

PRESS RELEASE

Trosifol™ Launches Global Design Competition

Kuraray's Trosifol™ business announces the launch of a global design competition for projects and structures that incorporate laminated glass. The World of Innovative Glass Laminating Solutions Design Competition will run from June 11 to September 7. Architects, engineers, façade consultants and fabricators are invited to submit projects for consideration. An international jury of experts will select winners in Trosifol® PVB and SentryGlas® categories. The winners will be recognized at 'glasstec 2018' International Trade Fair in October. For more information on entering the competition, visit trosifol.com <https://innovationaward.trosifol.com>
